Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On July 22, 1957, a girl child was born and christened Cynthia Ann Rudy; and,

WHEREAS, Cindy grew to womanhood in Cavour, South Dakota, and received diplomas from Huron High School and the University of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Cindy married Doug Loen in 1977 and they have been blessed with two daughters, Suzanne (6) and Elizabeth (4), both coming late in her life, setting the stage for the next major event in Cindy's life — grandmotherhood; and,

WHEREAS, Cindy is serving the state well as a state employee, but her usefulness is drawing quickly to a close as she approaches the age of Geritol, dentures, prunes and Medicare; and,

WHEREAS, Cindy Loen has reached her THIRTIETH Birthday, an event which will end her trustworthiness and relegate her social life to rocking chairs and lap rugs; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to proclaim to all of South Dakota that Cindy Loen is just plain OLD:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 22, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I urge all of Cindy's many friends and relatives to mock her and rub it in, because she is now a member in good standing of the "Over-the-Hill Gang."

CINDY LOEN IS OVER THE HILL DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE

Sorry, Cindy! ☹
